The Secret Still Hidden

On June 26, 2000 the Vatican published the enigmatic vision of “the Bishop dressed in white” and claimed it was the entirety of the Third Secret of Fatima. Since then, a growing number of Catholics have become convinced that something is missing. What is missing are the words of the Virgin Mary which would explain how the Pope in the vision comes to be executed by soldiers outside a ruined city filled with corpses.

In this book, attorney and Catholic commentator Christopher A. Ferrara conducts a meticulous examination of a mass of evidence—including many recent admissions, inadvertent disclosures, inconsistencies and sudden about-faces on the part of the Vatican Secretary of State, Cardinal Tarcisio Bertone—to arrive at the inescapable conclusion that a text of the Virgin’s words in the Third Secret has yet to be revealed.

This book is the first full-length examination of the grounds for rejecting Cardinal Bertone’s version of the facts in the Third Secret controversy. The Cardinal’s own statements, including his book and radio and television broadcasts in 2007, are shown to demonstrate beyond any doubt that a text of the Secret has been suppressed, evidently under an unjustifiable mental reservation that the text is not “authentic.”

Among other things, the evidence presented here demonstrates that—

- The Secret has two parts, as Pope Pius XII’s own investigator revealed, one of which contains words of the Virgin that are not found in the published vision.
- There are two different Third Secret envelopes, each bearing its own warning, in Sister Lucia’s handwriting, that by “express order of Our Lady” the envelope is not to be opened before 1960.

- There are two different locations for these envelopes: the Holy Office archives for one, the papal apartment for the other.
- A text of the Secret was inside an outer envelope bearing dictation by Pope John XXIII and kept in the papal apartment—an envelope Cardinal Tarcisio Bertone has never produced even though he now concedes that the envelope exists.
- There are two different Third Secret translations in Italian, neither of which has been made public by the Vatican.
- Three different Popes since 1959 read texts of the Secret on two different dates—years apart—even though the Vatican’s “official” explanation claims there was only a single reading by each Pope.

And yet the Catholic faithful are still being asked to believe that there is only one text of the Third Secret, and that the Virgin had nothing to say about the meaning of the ominous vision She Herself confided to the Fatima seers. Whoever still believes this will have no good reason to continue believing it after reading this book. And, given the absolute urgency of the Secret for every inhabitant of the planet, the case presented here should motivate Catholics and non-Catholics alike to demand that the Vatican reveal the hidden words of the Virgin to the whole world—before it is too late.

The Third Secret is the Key! Once the entire text is finally released, Catholics of good will, around the world, will become fully aware they have been seriously deceived. More importantly, they will know (before it’s too late) what they must do to save their souls.

Malachi Martin, who was given the Secret in February 1960, testified to its contents before millions of listeners for four hours on the Art Bell Radio Show. He stated the full release would make some people very angry.

He said that after it was released, our Catholic churches would be full. The people would be on their knees, beating their breasts. There will be long lines of people for confession.

Millions of Catholics today think they are on the right road. They believe that they are living moral and spiritual lives which are pleasing to God.

However, once they know the full Third Secret — once they read Our Lady’s own words — they will know that they have been spiritually blind and that they have been following blind leaders, and are far along the path to Hell.

Many souls will be saved simply by the Vatican releasing the entire text of Our Lady. Nothing is more imperative today, for the life of all Catholics, than that the Third Secret be released.

This book, The Secret Still Hidden, proves beyond any shadow of a doubt that Cardinal Bertone is deceiving us when he says the whole Third Secret has already been released. Thus, this book deserves wide circulation. The Secret Still Hidden, once widely distributed, will lead to the release of the whole text, including that part which contains Our Lady’s own words. We all need to know it NOW! Get this book, read it. Pass it on so that others, too, can read it.

Some of the comments from those who have read the book!

Christopher A. Ferrara is an attorney who serves as President and Chief Counsel for the American Catholic Lawyers Association, a religious organization dedicated to the defense of the rights of Catholics by way of litigation, public discourse and debate. Mr. Ferrara is also a widely published author on Catholic issues whose writings have appeared in The Latin Mass magazine, The Remnant newspaper, Christian Order, The Fatima Crusader magazine, Catholic Family News, and in his Internet column, Fatima Perspectives. He is the author of EWTN: A Network Gone Wrong, and co-author of The Great Façade: Vatican II and the Regime of Novelty in the Roman Catholic Church. Mr. Ferrara resides in New Jersey with his wife, Wendy, and four of their six children, where he is currently at work on his next book Liberty: the God that Failed.

This is the most clearly written book on this subject I have seen. It is all laid out like a trial case for a jury — all the research is done. Mr. Ferrara makes his case so strongly there can be no doubt about who is telling the truth.

To date, the Vatican, particularly Cardinal Bertone, the present Secretary of State, not only hides the complete text of the Secret containing Our Lady's words, but he even denies that the text exists. This book, The Secret Still Hidden, proves beyond any doubt that Bertone has been deceiving both the clergy and the faithful. And it tells us what each one of us can do about it.

Need to speak with Oprah Winfrey who could possibly invite the author on the show and promote the book. The story needs to be told. Time is running out!

The Miracle at Fatima should be told to all. Whether they listen will be their own choice. The world is in a very dark place right now, but more people have to "calmly" talk to each other about right and wrong, about Heaven and Hell, etc.

This book was a real wake up call for all people who call themselves Christians. It really made me think about the future of the Church. Many of us have strayed so far from the truth.

It is vital and critical for the salvation of all souls to read this book! People must wake up to reality and realize there's more to life than what is seen on T.V.; which is glamorized by Hollywood! Our Lady's Message must be heard and seen everywhere.

Christopher Ferrara's The Secret Still Hidden picks up where Antonio Socci leaves off. Not only does Ferrara's book present the central arguments in Socci's Fourth Secret of Fatima, but documents the dramatic developments in Rome from the release of Socci's book to the present. The most striking aspect of Mr. Ferrara's documentation is that each time Cardinal Bertone tries to put the Third Secret controversy to rest, the Cardinal further inflames the controversy by either revealing more than he intended to reveal or leaving crucial questions unanswered. No one can have an adequate understanding of the true issues surrounding the Third Secret of Fatima without reading Mr. Ferrara's comprehensive book.
